- UC Denver group Walkability Study:
- Lillian Bell
- Elizabeth Berrier

The objective of the project

- Introduce a more pedestrian oriented and walkability policy to the town/ discussing streets, public spaces, as well as private developments.
- discuss future funding for pedestrian oriented infrastructure and focus on the pedestrian experience as a social activity
- Work on compliance of ADA in the Town
- Introducing a Complete Streets Initiative for the Town

Goals

- create a more walkable town (+other types of modes of transportation if it is achievable) • Create a better sense of place for the community
- connect back to nature - human wellbeing, economic resiliency, healthy community
- create more community engagement
- connect current unused/underutilized spaces to the rest of the Town

How will this project be achieved?

- Continual site visits
- meeting with and/or interviewing community members, town board members
- refer to similar small town case studies that focus on walkability
- Learn more about the effects walkable spaces have on healthy communities

- Kara Bauman- Lyons Regional Library-StoryWalks

StoryWalks encourage people of all ages to get out and walk while enjoying children's books. Books are taken apart and each page is attached to a post along a path.

Here's an example from Vail: <https://vaillibrary.com/storywalk/> and another from Glenwood Springs: <https://www.gcpld.org/storywalk>
